

Shareholder Value Creation 4.0 – Throughout Persistent Uncertainty

Mohamed KHAN
CEO
Financial Services Institute

Mohamed KHAN – the Financial Services Institute (FSI) CEO - is the former MD of the City Banking College in the UK, who successfully established and managed the exponential growth of the financial training institution for academic and professional qualifications in London. He was a founding member of Accountancy Tutors/Emile Woolfe (now Kaplan). He is a self-starter with significant achievements and over 34 years of outstanding training experience in Banking, Legal, Accountancy and Management disciplines in over 15 countries.

His alumni boasts a Prime Minister (Antigua), Governors of Central Banks, The African Business Woman of the year 2014 and numerous Captains of Industry throughout the Globe. Mohamed requires little or no introduction in the continent of Africa having taught over 7,000 students during his time at City Banking College and Financial Training Kaplan.

He has proven credentials in establishing professional training institutions amidst the fiercely competitive London market, building strong linkages with over 6 different UK Universities including The University of Leicester, London Metropolitan University, University of Roehampton & The University of Ulster.

Learning 4.0; Financial Training Institution; Banking-Legal-Accountancy-Management Expertise

4.0 Leadership
From Surviving to Thriving