

Charles CARTIER

CEO
Air Mauritius

Business Leadership & Innovation Expert,
Economy 5.0, Business Transformation,
Masters Triathlon Champion and Ultra Trail
Runner

Charles CARTIER is the CEO of Air Mauritius. He has more than 25 years of experience at Corporate Executive level within Multinational companies.

He has served as Director on Boards of Private companies and of Public organisations such as Accenture, Bank of Mauritius and Business Mauritius. He was the first Chairman of the Economic Development Board between 2017 and 2020 and has chaired OTAM from 2014 to 2017. Charles is among the Mauritian pioneers of the Outsourcing industry firstly as an Entrepreneur in Multimedia outsourcing back in 1999 and leading the biggest BPO practices in Mauritius namely TNT Business Solutions (from 2007 to 2015) and Accenture from 2015 to 2024.

Charles' industrial portfolio is diverse having managed operations for global leaders in: Insurance, Aeronautics and Defense, Telecommunication, Media, Digital, Car Manufacturing among others. He now leads Mauritius' national airline since March 2024.

He is also a passionate sportsman having completed 3 IronMan Triathlon and two Diagonales des Fous (100 Miles Ultra trail). He has been National Triathlon Champion several times and 2 times African Triathlon Champion in the Masters category.

