Kapil REESAUL

CEO

Mauritius Telecom

Industry 5.0 Practitioner, Telco 5.0, Strategic Vision, Transformative Leadership

Kapil REESAUL, the CEO of Mauritius Telecom Group (MT) has an illustrious career which spans over 30 years in the Telecom and ICT sectors. Kapil is a global telecom authority, renowned for his transformative leadership and strategic vision.

His academic journey laid a solid foundation for his career. Kapil earned a Postgraduate degree (DESS) in Cable Networking Engineering with a specialization in Fibre Optics, alongside a Master's degree in Electronics and Automation, from Lille University of Science & Technology in France. His commitment to excellence was further demonstrated through an MBA in General Management from Midrand Graduate Institute in South Africa, now the Pearson Institute.

Kapil's career at Mauritius Telecom is a testament to his groundbreaking impact. He has held pivotal roles, including Chief Customer Experience Officer (2015-2016), Executive Head Commercial (2012-2015), and Senior Executive Business Market (2007-2012). As General Manager of Telecom Plus Ltd, Mauritius Telecom's trailblazing ISP, he was instrumental in launching cutting-edge services such as Broadband ADSL, the Nortel and Cisco PABX, FTTH & IPTV solutions, and innovative mobile postpaid and data offers. His leadership extended to Southern Telecom (Pty) Ltd in South Africa, where he gained extensive experience while simultaneously positioning MT for its first successful international operation.

Kapil's global perspective was enriched during his tenure at the Royal Bank of Canada in Toronto from 2016 to 2022. Returning to MT as CEO on August 1, 2022, Kapil is poised to steer the company into an exciting new era of technological advancement and market leadership. His career is a compelling narrative of innovation, leadership, and a relentless drive to shape the future of telecommunications.
