Ms Marie Loe HALVORSEN is a Political Advisor for the Vice Mayor of Finance in Oslo City, Norway's capital.

She works with Oslo's climate budget, where Oslo aims to become climate neutral within 2030. Other responsibilities are the global SDGs, sustainable food systems, socially responsible public procurements and information security. She has also worked on Oslo's ambitious goals of creating a car free city centre.

She holds MSc in Environmental Physics and Renewable Energy from the Norwegian University of Life Sciences (NMBU). She wrote her master's thesis on the Mauritian electricity system, and ways for Mauritius to become less dependent on fossil fuel imports.
