Delivering Value & Productivity through Project Management

1st Project Management Conference

Delivering Value & Productivity through Project Management

18-19Sep17,
Ravenala Attitude Resort & Spa, BalACLava, Mauritius

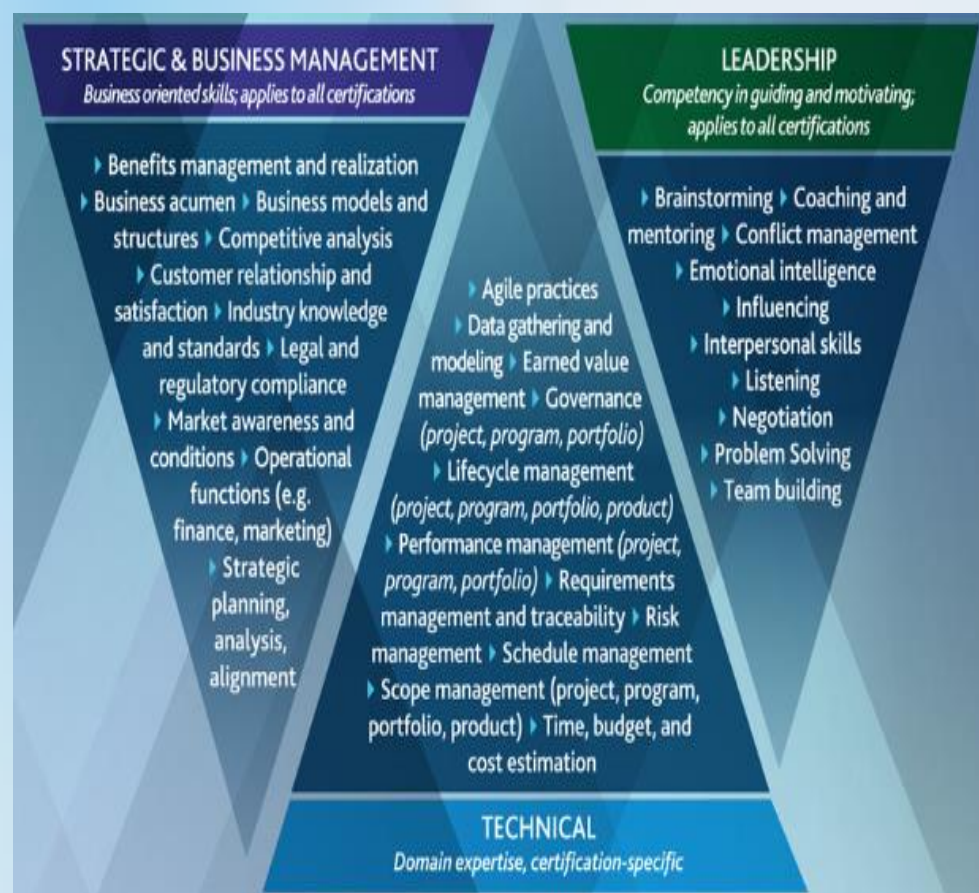

Goals are dreams with deadlines...

Why Should you attend?

Projects are vital to a country like Mauritius which is innovating, advancing economically and steadfastly progressing towards its global growth objectives. In line with that, Team SYNthesis (Mauritius & Africa) Ltd is organizing its first Project Management Conference in Mauritius and aims at influencing Project thinking in order to deliver Value & Productivity through Project Management

This conference will highlight the significant impact Project Management has on professionals, organizations and the nation as a whole. The Conference will be attended by a large number of project professionals from a cross section of industries. At the conference, delegates will obtain in-depth insights into best practices, changes and challenges faced by industries through a host of key note sessions, papers, case studies and qualitative interactions with other international practitioners. These learnings are then carried back to the projects delivered by various organizations, thus, creating a powerful cycle of improvement to deliver successful projects on time.

Whether you're an experienced Project Manager with dozens of successful projects in your past, or a new PM still learning the ropes, it's a good idea to attend at least one conference for Project Management professionals each year. Project management events may be the single best way to keep yourself connected to the project management community and to keep yourself up to date on the latest news and innovations in your field. First time presenting to you the PM conference in Mauritius with valuable sharing and attendees all across the globe.
